

Prior to registering on the national do not call list, I was bombarded with unsolicited telemarketing calls day and night.
After registering, I still received enough calls to consider them bothersome. After registering with our state do not call registry, the calls to my home have stopped. Please don't change our law.